The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1,4 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Law et al.

Claims 1,2 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Dudly.

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Arreola et al.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2 and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Law et al in view of Arreola et al. Law shows the claimed article with the exception of the non-slip surface and means for locking and unlocking. Arreola shows steps 11a and b with slip-resistant treads 16a, 16b and means for locking and unlocking<sup>20,23</sup>. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the steps of Law to comprise non-slip surfaces and means for locking and unlocking, as taught by Arreola, as a safety means and to facilitate storage, respectively.
